CAPELIN report, dtd 4 April 1955, on Pawlo DIMITRENKO @ Paul DEIBACH

See CANDIOT file

CAPELIN first met DEIBACH in the company of Frans von TARBUX c. 1939-1940 while engaged with Abwehrstelle III, Krakow. Met him socially again in Ukraine during 1941-45. Later, after the war, CAPELIN met Subject at home of Archbishop PALADIY (RUDEENKO), and was subsequently invited to his house. Soon, DEIBACH was confiding in CAPELIN ~~xxxxxxx~~ concerning his contact with various personalities, and one Otto KREUGER, and East Zone businessman who wanted to serve as a contact with Western emigre groups for a group of dissatisfied Soviet officers.

Long and involved report, purpose of which is to prove that CAPELIN warned DEIBACH that he should be careful in re KREUGER. et al, and that he was probably the target of a Soviet provocation attempt.
